

CAMP STAFF:

The Soccer Skills Academy staff has years of soccer experience.

Donny DeStefano, who was a Division II All-League soccer player in college, has several years of assistant and head coaching experience at the high school level, including three years as part of the Newton soccer program. Donny was also a standout athlete at Newton High School in the 1990s.

Brian Martin has been a player, coach, and trainer for the past 20+ years. He played for Muhlenberg College in Allentown, PA. Currently he is head coach for the Newton High School Boys' Varsity Soccer Team. During the 2012 season, Brian helped lead the Braves to the first state title in Sussex County history. In 2013 and 2016, he again led the Braves to the Group II State Final. He has been honored as both the NJ Herald Coach of the Year and the Mugs Media Coach of the Year. Brian is a middle school teacher at Green Hills School.

Matt Martinka is a Newton High School alumnus and former All State Selection from the Newton High School soccer program. He was also a two-time team captain for the Division I college soccer program at Bowling Green State University. Currently, Matt is a certified elementary school teacher and local youth soccer trainer.
